   Amanda DeCort brought up discussion of proposed new signage at five select locations in Brady Heights. DeCort received the request after the agenda had been published. Brady Heights Neighborhood Association received a beautification grant to purchase and install the signs. The proposed sign designs and a location map were presented. There was discussion about the height and design of the signs, location in the City rights-of-way, and permitting requirements. Commissioner Turner noted his concern over the number of signs already existing in Brady Heights. Commissioner King commented that the Sign Board and sign permitting staff would make sure that the designs meet code requirements. Vice-Chairman Shears commented that the Arts Commission needed to review the artwork on the sign.

   Attorney Bob Edmiston expressed his interpretation of the zoning code that would require the Preservation Commission to review a request for signage. It was agreed that a COA application be presented at the next TPC Regular Meeting.

   DeCort reminded the Commission that placing historic markers, or causing them to be placed, is one of the Commission’s duties under Chapter 10A of the Zoning Code. She requested that the Commission support BHNA’s request in concept although further design review may be needed. Chairman Bergman stated that the Commission could support the concept without approving the design.

   Commissioner King made a motion to endorse the concept of historic district markers in Brady Heights. Commissioner Smallwood seconded.
